A. H. CLEMENT Editor.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 17, 1906.

"CLEVELAND SUNSHINE."

Richmond's Fair and Horse Show week was flooded with genuine "Cleveland Sunshine" and the crowd was there to revel in it and to see the sights. Big crowd, jolly, good natured—in sympathy with the occasion and with money to spend. And the premium pig was there and the pumpkins and the red apples and the yellow pears, and the light loaf and the large potato and the comfortable comfort and the crazy quilt, and the racers and the roadsters. But the one thing about the Fair that most interested the crowd was the crowd itself.

When Virginian meets Virginian then new beams are added to life's brightness and a new thrill to life's bliss. Let the State Fair become a prominent part of the State's history, and at least once a year let us gather in Virginia's capital city, dear old Richmond.

Some one well asks "why not a bank trust whose business it would be to stand the losses of any affiliated bank caused by speculative presidents and cashiers and dummy directors?" There is a lot of wisdom in the above. Depositors should be saved against the non-action of "dummy directors" for this would mean protection against speculative presidents and cashiers. We repeat six to ten men will not agree to loot a bank. If people would only wear their own collars, whether in bank or any other position of trust the seed of the corruptionist would never take root.

The first copy of the Pamplin City News is before us—Mr. J. R. Meadow is editor. The paper looks good, and its pages portray a live town of business men who are advertising to the world the progress and thrift of their home town. If your business men keep on pulling together, Pamplin will be a city in reality some day.

We regret the continued illness of Mr. Eggleston, our worthy and wide-awake Superintendent of Public Instruction. He is fired with ambition to make a brilliant record and to do much for Virginia's schools, and all this is laudable, but he should remember that there are limits to human powers of endurance.

Senator Baily is making heroic efforts at restitution in the confidence of his own people. They will no doubt do him justice. We know nothing of the merits of the controversy, but it would have been better for the brilliant Texan to have lived as our Daniel has done, "above suspicion."

The death of young Ryan, at his home in Nelson, was a great loss to that county. He had become the host of the county and was discharging a gracious and liberal hospitality. The world can not afford the loss of such men in this age, so given to the grab-all and give-none spirit.

Sullivan is a power in Illinois politics, and yet Mr. Bryan defied him as though he had been a weakling. May be there are some people living still who had "rather be right than President."

Ex-Governor Montague received a cordial greeting on his home-coming. Like Mr. Bryan he emerged from defeat victor. He is worthy all the good he is receiving.

It is well that the political aspirants of the State should "keep an eye" on Colonel Cabell, of Norfolk. He is coming to the front, if not already there.

The Rev. Sam Jones, noted evangelist and platform speaker died suddenly of heart disease on a train in Arkansas on the 15th instant. There will be none to take his place.

If the newspapers will drop the Daniel-Swanson contest we are quite sure it will never become a part of Virginia political history.

Cuba is a white elephant on your Uncle Sam's hands and if he paints him black he will still be an elephant.

Capt. Turner Dead.

The burial of Capt. John C. Turner took place to-day at his home, which is not far from this post office. It was a beautiful Oct. evening and a large crowd of both white and colored bore silent testimony to the esteem with which the deceased was held. The distressed family have the sympathy of many friends and neighbors.

Capt. Turner was a man of much intelligence and wide information and was for many years Justice of the Peace in the Centenary district and it has been said in the hearing of the writer that there never was an appeal to court from one of his decisions as magistrate. He often took interest in the political campaigns and was always on hand at the poles. He was often consulted by people in all kinds of troubles and no doubt his advice was sound.

He leaves a widow and seven small children to mourn his death. The sons are: Eldridge, John, Tom, Harry and Rolfe, Mrs. Joe K. Irving, and Miss Mary Turner are his daughters. His pastor, Rev. T. H. Lacy could not attend and the burial was conducted by an Episcopal preacher, from Schuyler, Nelson county.

Capt. Turner was in his 84th year and was loved by all.

Marriage Announcements.

Mr. Robt. Brown Haines and Miss Mattie Lee Ayres, both of Buckingham county, were married at 9 o'clock last Wednesday at the bride's home, Edge Hill, Va., Rev. Mr. Richardson performing the ceremony.

The bride was attended by two flower girls, Misses Ethel and Annie Lightfoot, and bridesmaids, Misses Sallie Ayres, Sallie Lightfoot, Elsie Ayres, Maggie May Ayres, and Cassie Conner. The ushers were Kittie Eldridge, Leake Ayres, Tom Ford, John Gary and Willie Ayres.

How to Cure a Cold.

The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger of pneumonia and other dangerous diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years and says: I firmly believe it to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address

WHY A FARMER SHOULD KEEP A BANK ACCOUNT.

Farmers as a rule do not keep books of accounts. Their accounts therefore, on the ledger of a bank will afford them a complete record of all their important transactions, involving the payment or receipt of money. A cancelled check, when returned by the bank, at the end of the month, constitutes the safest receipt one can have for showing the payment of money. Paying a laborer, a store account, or any other bills, with a check drawn on a bank, is safer than using money: because the person receiving the check must endorse it and the check should be preserved as a receipt.

Money deposited in a bank is not so easily or so often "Fooled away" as when carried a day in ones pocket. Try the experiment for one year of keeping a bank account and see if it does not pay you.

A large number of the most reliable farmers, in this section, have accounts with us. We are very desirous of having the accounts of farmers on our books and we will be glad to furnish, at any time whatever information we can in regard to the subject of banking.

The persons who open accounts with us we furnish check books free of cost.

When you are in Lynchburg call in and inspect our new banking room.

A Certain Cure for Croup - Used for Ten Years Without a Failure.

Mr. W. C. Bott, a Star City, Ind. hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much feared the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacts of croup but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequaled for croup and whooping cough.
